Camping Rules:

- Upon their arrival, guests must go to the reception office to deliver documents and for assignment of the pitch, the choice of which is at the discretion of Management;
- Admission to the campsite is always subject to Management's approval. Any guests of the campers may be admitted at the discretion of the Management and after the formalities mentioned in point '1' and they must pay the daily ticket depending on the arrival time. It is forbidden for minors to enter unless accompanied;
- The day will be considered to begin at 12 of each day and end at 12 of the following day. Each portion of the day will be counted as a full day;
- Current prices are displayed in the offices. Guests can also view the schedules of services and equipment, as well as the insurance conditions of the policies stipulated by the Management;
- Any activity that disturbs the tranquillity of guests is prohibited on the Campsite;
- Departures and arrivals before 7 a.m. and after 11 p.m. are prohibited. During the same hours, the movement of scooters and cars within the Campsite is forbidden. During the hours of silence, we also invite to limit the use of bicycles, radio or TV, or other noise-producing devices;
- Cars may enter the Camp area at a maximum speed of 10 kilometres per hour, and only strictly for the time necessary for loading during the permitted hours. They must normally be parked in the parking area;
- A pitch limited by trees on all four sides will be assigned for each guest. The guests may not occupy with their tent, caravan, or other encumbrances, even if temporary, portions of the area beyond their assigned pitch;
- It is forbidden to damage trees or equipment of the campsite, drive stakes into the ground, dig holes, lay wires, or form fences that obstruct the free passage of other campers, and this also applies to the pitch under assignment;
- Acts of vandalism and uncivilized behaviour are not tolerated at this campsite. Parents are responsible for their children causing damage within the Campsite. In case of violation, guests will be warned and may be expelled from the campground. In the case of criminally punishable offenses (such as drug use or alcohol abuse among minors), the management will take all measures by reporting those responsible to the judicial authorities;

- The Management declines all liability for theft, fire, or damage to belongings and persons, just as it is not liable for damage caused by thunderstorms, hail, falling trees, branches, diseases including plant diseases, epidemics, fire, major force, etc. We recommend stipulating insurance in advance for both equipment and risks at the Campsite;
- It is allowed to use the carbon grill as long as it does not damage the trees or lawn and the smoke does not cause a disturbance;
- Waste of any kind must be deposited in the appropriate containers and each guests are required to leave the toilet facilities, and the pitch they have occupied, in perfect order and clean after using them;
- The drinking fountains placed along the Campsite avenues must be used only for water withdrawal and any other use is prohibited;
- Toilets and facilities must be used with neatness, decency, and cleanliness. Children must be accompanied to the facilities by adults. Washing of laundry and dishes must be done only at the designated sinks;
- The pitch is considered assigned for the installation of a single caravan or tent; any other use must be authorized by Management, which has the right, in any case, to request its removal, which must be done within 24 hours;
- Pre-entries made of wood or plastic, or other than cloth are not allowed;
- Guests must report any case of infectious disease immediately. Management reserves the right to request the removal of the sick person;
- The facilities of the nearby Sporting Lido may be used free of charge by guests with observance of existing regulations and schedules;
- Violation of any of the mentioned rules will result in termination of the contract and it is the right of the Management to order the immediate removal of the person responsible, without prejudice to any action for compensation for any damage;
- In the event that the guests fail to comply with the Management's invitation to leave the Campsite or to free the pitch, the guests will be required to pay, as compensation for damages, a sum equal to twice the current rates for each day of unauthorized stay or occupancy;
- Management reserves the right of retention on the guest's tent or roulette for non-payment of even partial amounts owed by the guests for any reason whatsoever.

Contractual Rules:

- Cancellations of reservations are received only in person or by email. Anyone who is forced to cancel the reservation of all or part of the booked period will not receive any refund of the paid fee;
- The reserved pitch is kept available to the client no later than 3 days from the date set as the start of the stay;
- Subletting of pitches or transfer of the contract for any reason is prohibited;
- Anyone who signs and accepts the booking contract rules also commits themselves to scrupulous compliance with the regulations in force within the Campsite;
